

A HISTORY OF TAIWAN'S INDIGENOUS PEOPLES & THE STATE

A NATIONAL WEBINAR FOR K-12 TEACHERS

Join Professor Kun-Hui Ku as she discusses Taiwan's indigenous peoples and their relationship to the state through different historical periods, including Tsai Ing-wen's apology on behalf of the state in 2016 and the new administration under William Lai.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 2024
7pm ET - live on Zoom

Participation is free.

This webinar is made possible through funding from the Freeman Foundation to the National Consortium for Teaching about Asia, Program for Teaching East Asia, University of Colorado Boulder and the Five College Center for East Asian Studies at Smith College.

Kun-Hui Ku is professor of Anthropology at National Tsing Hua University where she is a committee member for the Center for World Austronesia and Indigenous Peoples. Professor Ku earned her PhD in Social Anthropology at King's College, University of Cambridge, UK.
